

| ResultLeprosy and disabilities inclusive society with reduced disease burden due to leprosy |   |  |  |   |
|---|---|--|--|---|
| Institutional changes   | In June 2022, social development ministry of Province 1 agreed to take ownership on NLR supported ID Municipalities and allocated budget for them (nine Municipalities) for continuation of Inclusion promotion | In June 2022, Letang Municipality of Morang district started the provision of free folic acid to all pregnant women from all existing health centers (four)  | In June 2022, technical committee of EDCD/LCDMS accepted and approved PEP++ project and then sent approval letter to NLR Nepal                               | In July 2022, ethical review board of NHRC, decided to approve impact assessment research project of NLR Nepal and provided approval letter   |
|   |   | In June 2022, Belaka Municipality of Udayapur district decided tax free provision for publics & institutions on constructing disabilities friendly structures  | In February 2022, LCDMS accepted the role of chair for the steering/scientific committee of PEP++ project in Nepal   |   |
| Changes in capacity, behavior, relationship   | In June 2022, DHO Kailali restructured ranking of program implementation & ranked leprosy as priority 1 (P1) program for execution in coming fiscal year  | In year 2022, TLMN included SDR PEP as one of the program component under HEAL project and then allocated resources accordinglyIn November 2022, NNSWA decided to train all the board members and existing projects' staffs on leprosy to get support from all of them on making leprosy more result focused and main priority issues for practical implementation at field level. | In May 2022, Health ministry of province 1 managed to allocate resources through DHOs of 14 districts for leprosy control interventions                      | In October 2022, FAIRMED committed and Signed MoU for the partnership with NLR to implement "Impact assessment of SDR PEP under routine program conditions of Nepal" in both Intervention and control districts funded by LRI |
|   | In October 2022, Technical as well as duplicating natures of PEP++ and KHOJ projects are resolved with triparty agreement for joint effort and proper field executions  | In January 2022, Tikapur municipality of Kailali district realized the need and allocated additional budget for Leprosy control as well as prevention from local resources   | In February 2022, LCDMS convinced on PEP++ project and organized a technical committee meeting at EDCD on discussing the issues of PEP++ among policy makers |   |
| Early outcomes or milestones  | In February 2022, Provincial Health Directorate and other partners in Madhesh Province decided conflicting and duplicating natures of TLMI supported KHOJ project with PEP++ in two Municipalities of Dhanusha  |  | In January 2022, LCDMS denied to agree on ethical approval from NHRC and informed NLR to get additional approval from MoH                                    | In January 2022, LCDMS sent a disappointing letter to NLR Nepal against of PEP++ project with collecting evidence as meeting minutes among five peoples from different sectors  |
| Project activities or inputs (Jan – Dec 2022)   | Technical and financial support   | Capacity building  | Lobby and advocacy   | Research & innovations  |

| ResultLeprosy and disabilities inclusive society with reduced disease burden due to leprosy |   |  |  |   |
|---|---|--|--|---|
| Institutional changes   | In June 2022, social development ministry of Province 1 agreed to take ownership on NLR supported ID Municipalities and allocated budget for them (nine Municipalities) for continuation of Inclusion promotion | In June 2022, Letang Municipality of Morang district started the provision of free folic acid to all pregnant women from all existing health centers (four)  | In June 2022, technical committee of EDCD/LCDMS accepted and approved PEP++ project and then sent approval letter to NLR Nepal                               | In July 2022, ethical review board of NHRC, decided to approve impact assessment research project of NLR Nepal and provided approval letter   |
|   |   | In June 2022, Belaka Municipality of Udayapur district decided tax free provision for publics & institutions on constructing disabilities friendly structures  | In February 2022, LCDMS accepted the role of chair for the steering/scientific committee of PEP++ project in Nepal   |   |
| Changes in capacity, behavior, relationship   | In June 2022, DHO Kailali restructured ranking of program implementation & ranked leprosy as priority 1 (P1) program for execution in coming fiscal year  | In year 2022, TLMN included SDR PEP as one of the program component under HEAL project and then allocated resources accordinglyIn November 2022, NNSWA decided to train all the board members and existing projects' staffs on leprosy to get support from all of them on making leprosy more result focused and main priority issues for practical implementation at field level. | In May 2022, Health ministry of province 1 managed to allocate resources through DHOs of 14 districts for leprosy control interventions                      | In October 2022, FAIRMED committed and Signed MoU for the partnership with NLR to implement "Impact assessment of SDR PEP under routine program conditions of Nepal" in both Intervention and control districts funded by LRI |
|   | In October 2022, Technical as well as duplicating natures of PEP++ and KHOJ projects are resolved with triparty agreement for joint effort and proper field executions  | In January 2022, Tikapur municipality of Kailali district realized the need and allocated additional budget for Leprosy control as well as prevention from local resources   | In February 2022, LCDMS convinced on PEP++ project and organized a technical committee meeting at EDCD on discussing the issues of PEP++ among policy makers |   |
| Early outcomes or milestones  | In February 2022, Provincial Health Directorate and other partners in Madhesh Province decided conflicting and duplicating natures of TLMN supported KHOJ project with PEP++ in two Municipalities of Dhanusha  |  | In January 2022, LCDMS denied to agree on ethical approval from NHRC and informed NLR to get additional approval from MoH                                    | In January 2022, LCDMS sent a disappointing letter to NLR Nepal against of PEP++ project with collecting evidence as meeting minutes among five peoples from different sectors  |
| Project activities or inputs (Jan – Dec 2022)   | Technical and financial support   | Capacity building  | Lobby and advocacy   | Research & innovations  |

